

The Maryland Port Administration

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 24, 2012

CONTACT:

Richard Scher
MPA
(410) 385-4483

STAFF AT PORT OF BALTIMORE WINS GUEST SATISFACTION AWARD FROM CARNIVAL CRUISE LINES

Baltimore Embarkation Staff at Cruise Terminal Rated Highest Among Cruise Line's Year-Round North American Homeports

(BALTIMORE, MD) --- Intercruises Shoreside and Port Services, the company that handles guest relations on cruise days at the Port of Baltimore's cruise terminal, received the 2011 Guest Logistics Staff of the Year award from Carnival Cruise Lines last night, an honor that recognizes a guest's experience and level of service at a cruise terminal. In winning the award, the embarkation staff at the Port of Baltimore triumphed over all other embarkation staffs at North American ports served by Carnival. The award evaluates embarkation practices, hospitality and service, and other pre-and-post cruise measurables.

"We thank Carnival Cruise Lines for this wonderful award," said Governor Martin O'Malley. "As the Port of Baltimore's cruise business has grown tremendously in the last few years, we have made certain that our commitment to providing our passengers with an outstanding cruise terminal experience has not waned. I congratulate all the labor and staff personnel who work at the cruise terminal and who understand what it means to deliver excellent customer service."

In 2012, 100 cruises are scheduled from the Port of Baltimore. Last year a record 251,889 people sailed on 105 cruises. The total economic value to the State of Maryland of cruising from the Port of Baltimore is about $90 million. Approximately 220 direct jobs in Maryland are generated by cruise activity.

"At Carnival, the fun begins from the moment our guests arrive at the cruise terminal and our embarkation staff at the Port of Baltimore do a fantastic job at setting the tone for the remainder of the voyage, creating a welcoming atmosphere and demonstrating an exceptional level of service," said Milly Martin, Carnival's senior director of guest logistics. "Our team at the Port of Baltimore is certainly deserving of this honor as they truly live up to the motto of 'service with a smile!'"

Carnival, which began offering year-round cruising from Baltimore in 2009, signed a five-year extension in 2011 to continue sailing from Maryland. The first two years of the agreement are guaranteed and there are three one-year options. Carnival provides weekly sailings to the Bahamas and Caribbean.

-MORE-

Port of Baltimore Wins Carnival Cruise Lines Award

“I want to congratulate Cindi Schuman and Intercruises as well as all of our International Longshoremen’s Association labor and security cruise terminal partners on this great honor,” said Maryland Port Administration Executive Director James J. White. “A lot of people work very hard to enhance the overall cruising experience and make sure our cruise terminal is a safe and easily accessible facility. We will continue to do whatever needs to be done to maintain the high level of expectations that guests expect from us.”

The Port of Baltimore handled the fifth-largest amount of cruise passengers among East Coast cruise ports and 12th largest in the U.S. in 2010. Baltimore is within a six hour drive of 40 million people. Maryland’s median household income of $68,845 is the highest in the U.S. Baltimore is also located within a four-hour drive of eight of the ten wealthiest counties in the U.S.

# #